

Privacy Policy

Last updated: May 24, 2017

The Cloud Connectors ("us", "we", or "our") has created this Privacy Policy to explain how we collect, use and disclose information that we may obtain when you use Cloud Connectors services ("Services") such as but not limited to our Website and Integration platform (Connect Every Ware!).

The use of information collected through our Services shall be limited to the purpose of providing you with the service for which you have engaged us.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to business partners, third parties or other products used to integrate with us. We recommend you review the privacy policy of third party products and services with whom you interact.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page.

You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes. Changes to this Privacy Policy are effective when they are posted on this page.

If we make any material changes to this Privacy Policy, we will notify you either through the email address you have provided us, or by placing a prominent notice on our website.

User Information Collected

When you use our Services, we may collect personal information. That information is needed to grant you access to content, to provide you support or Services or to apply for jobs. That information is used in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

The following information is collected:

Personal information

- For registration and access such as your name, company, email address, phone number and job title. You provide that information directly when you register on our site, make an online request or join a community or user group. In some cases, the information could be provided by another user. For example, a system administrator could create an account for you and provide your personal information. The information is collected under the direction of our customers and we may not have direct relationship with all users. If you are an employee of one of our customers and you do not want us to process your information, please contact your employer. If you are providing the information for someone else, you must have the authority to do it for them and to consent to the collection and use of their personal information as described in this Privacy Policy.

- Information that you provide as part of the online job application process.
- Information provided directly by our customers when they purchase products and services. That information may include but is not limited to: products/services purchased, payment data, billing information, usernames and passwords

Information collected from our Clients through our Platform (Connect Every Ware)

The Cloud Connectors collects information under the direction of its clients, and has no direct relationship with the individuals whose personal data it processes through our cloud-based integration called Connect Every Ware!. As a data processor, we may collect various types of personal data on behalf of clients (collectively, this data is "Client Data"). The types of data processed on behalf of our clients depends upon clients' sole and exclusive decisions.

An individual who seeks access, or who seeks to correct, amend, or delete inaccurate data should direct his query to Cloud Connectors' client (the data controller). If the client asks Cloud Connectors' to remove the data, we will respond to their request as soon as reasonably practicable.

Log Data

We may also collect information that your browser sends whenever you visit our Service ("Log Data"). This Log Data may include information such as your computer's Internet Protocol ("IP") address, browser type, browser version, the pages of our Service that you visit, the time and date of your visit, the time spent on those pages and other statistics.

In addition, we may use third party services such as Google Analytics that collect, monitor and analyze this type of information in order to increase our Service's functionality. These third-party service providers have their own privacy policies addressing how they use such information.

Cookies

Cookies are files with small amount of data, which may include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from a web site and stored on your computer's hard drive.

We use "cookies" to collect information. You can instruct your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent. However, if you do not accept cookies, you may not be able to use some portions of our Service.

If you do not instruct your browser to refuse all cookies or to indicate when a cookie is being sent, your consent to our use of your Personal Information may be implied.

Use and Disclosure of User Information

We will not share or disclose any of your Personal Information with third parties except as described in this policy. We intend to use the information we collect to support your relationship with The Cloud Connectors.

Products and Services

Your Personal Information will be used to give you access to The Cloud Connectors Services. The types of access may include but is not limited to: Integration Platform (Connect Every Ware!), Support portal, forums/user groups, etc...

Communications

We may use your Personal Information to contact you with newsletters, marketing or promotional materials and other information that may be of interest to you. You may opt out of receiving any, or all, of these communications from us by following the unsubscribe link or instructions provided in any email we send.

Compliance with Laws

As set out above, and for clarity, we will disclose your Personal Information where required to do so by law or subpoena or if we believe that such action is necessary to comply with the law and the reasonable requests of law enforcement or to protect the security or integrity of our Service.

Business Transaction

If The Cloud Connectors is involved in a merger, acquisition or asset sale, your Personal Information may be transferred. We will make reasonable efforts to provide notice before your Personal Information is transferred and becomes subject to a different Privacy Policy.

Security and Data Storage

The security of your Personal Information is important to us and we are committed to taking reasonable steps to protect it from unauthorized access and use. We put in place the appropriate physical, electronic and managerial policies and procedures to secure your Personal Information. All our data transmissions are encrypted including your login credentials.

The Cloud Connectors primarily stores User Information with hosting service providers in the United States. Our Connect Every Ware! integration platform can be deployed in data centers around the world at your request. Let us know if you have special data storage needs.

All the servers we use to store Personal Information are kept in a controlled environment, but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Links to Other Sites

Our Service may contain links to other sites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that third party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy of every site you visit.

We have no control over, and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third-party sites or services.

Children's Privacy

Our Service does not address anyone under the age of 18 ("Minor").

We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from Minors. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your Minor has provided us with Personal Information, please contact us. If we become aware that we have collected Personal Information from Minors without verification of parental consent, we take steps to remove that information from our servers.

International Users

If you are from outside the United States, you are agreeing to the transfer of your Personal Information to the United States to us. If you are a customer of the Connect Every Ware! Integration platform, it is possible to use data centers from outside the United States to store the integration platform data. Only the Connect Every Ware! data is covered by that exception.

By providing your Personal Information, you consent to any transfer and processing in accordance with this Policy.
